

Subject: GFC Wednesday Weekly - 8 Week until Summer 2023!

Our countdown to camp has officially begun! In just over 8 weeks, our gates will open for the summer. Our planning for summer is in full swing, our staff has been hired (with only a few spots left to fill!), lake toys and supplies are being purchased, and so much more. Each day, we get more and more excited to welcome you home to GFC!

This is the first of our new Countdown to Camp Wednesday Weekly emails for our enrolled camp families. Each Wednesday, we will share important information about getting ready for camp. We know that good, clear communication is of the utmost importance. In addition to the information included in each email, we will include a graphic letting you know what information to expect next or what you might have missed in a previous email. There will be a Camper Corner with special updates and information for your camper about what to expect this summer. Further, you can always find a record of our pre-summer communications on our website here. Our Senior Manager of Marketing and Communication, Marissa Meador, will guide all our email communication, social media updates, photo and video sharing, and more. You can get in touch with Marissa at mmeador@urj.org.
